DEDICATION

To God, the Great Restorer, and Waymaker

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My big brother and mentor, Pastor Olusola Olufunso, gave me unflinching support, guidance, and inspiration to live my best life and pay attention to signs and signals of victory. God is using him to amplify Whispers of Winners in numerous ways. Thank you, sir.

Damilola Bamgbose helped to proofread the manuscript and put the declarations into sections. His loyalty and love are second to none. Thank you, my dear brother in the Lord.

Olanrewaju Ademolu helped to do the final editing and the designs of the book. God bless you, my dear brother.

Big thanks to Kelechi Abiri, Chinwe Ezisi, Alerma Antonio, Nesrin Aykac and Zully Suleiman for their moral support and prayers. I can't thank you enough. To everyone that will share this book, thank you for spreading hope and light.

INTRODUCTION

I thought I would die after losing all my savings to a fraudster on the 18th of September, 2020. I was broken, bitter, and became homeless. It was the beginning of a draining and devastating wilderness journey.

I have always believed that rock bottom is a place of recovery and discovery, but it's hard to focus when one is going through the fire of losses and betrayal. While I was pursuing every legal means to get my money back, God caught my attention and started speaking to me. The word He gave me was, "You were not defrauded, but delivered."

Well, I had no other option than to trust the only One who never left me in that secret storm. I started studying the Bible more and spent more time in prayers. Then I began to discover the power of faith backed up with the spoken word. I was stirred up in my spirit to speak 'restoration with compensation' into existence. On the 18th of December, 2020, exactly three months after I got swindled, I got my money back. God is faithful, and yes, He hears the whispers of winners!

For those who may have suffered any form of loss, and are trusting God for recovery and victory, this book was inspired by God to help you become victorious through daily declarations of victory. It is not just a compilation of positive affirmations, but a faith-booster for permanent dominion. Everyone who desires to sustain the atmosphere of constant victory needs to engage prophetic/positive declarations.

Words are powerful tools for complete and permanent victory. However, words are powerless without faith! Faith gives our words wings to fly,

Faith brings confirmations out of affirmations.

Faith helps us to take delivery of our declarations.

Faith brings evidence out of expectations.

Faith is the magnet of supernatural manifestation.

As you use this book, speak with faith in your heart and pay attention to the divine signals and triggers, God will give you specific instructions, write them down, and take prompt action. I trust that this book will be your visa to undeniable victory in Jesus' name.
