WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF WINNERS

With utmost pleasure, I welcome you to a glorious journey of speaking biblical declarations over your life. You may wonder what the essence of declaring biblical declaration is. It is simply taking God's Word, believing in faith that It is written concerning you, and declaring His truths over your life. While random positive declarations are dependent on self, biblical declarations are dependent on the irrevocable Word of God and the only fountain where you can draw your strength and build up your faith in wavering times.

Perhaps you want to be more intentional with your words and thoughts. This book has been designed as inspired by the Holy Spirit to help you boldly declare God's Word in faith over your life and in every of its helm of affairs. It is more than just a book, it's a life-transforming journey. It is my sincerest prayer that as you speak these words daily, they shall become life and spirit unto you because they are your reality in Christ Jesus. (John 6:63).

If you got this book as a gift and it is a blessing to you, pass it on to someone too.

Welcome to the winning side!

With love,
Adeleke Adeite,
Author.

GUIDES TO MAKING THE MOST OF THIS DEVOTIONAL

When you're saying the declarations for each day, you should take note of a few key points:

1. Say it out loud or declare it in your mind first thing in the morning or during your meditation time.
2. Choose to focus more on the part of the declarations that resonate more with you.
3. Each declaration needs to be repeated, whether by writing, speaking or meditating. You may want to take screenshots and use them as your wallpaper/display picture.
4. Meditate on the declarations intentionally and be sensitive to the instructions that God will give you.
5. Take positive steps/actions. This will make the declarations become your reality. Faith without works is dead. Biblical declarations are not enough; your attitude, actions and decisions must align with what you are declaring.
